VIDEO: Inside the studio of Fireworks artist-in-residence Julian Crouch

November 26, 2012

Recently, BRIC visited artist Julian Crouch in his studio in Red Hook to have a look at his creations and see how he likes living in Brooklyn. Julian will be a Fireworks artist-in-residence at BRIC House, our new home opening in 2013. He will collaborate with musician Mark Stewart (Bang on a Can) and filmmaker Ragnar Freidank.

Julian's work can be seen on stages all over the world including Barbican (UK) and the Met Opera, where in 2008 he was the designer for Satyagraha.
